

SELECTED PROJECTS

Temple Ner Tamid Bloomfield, NJ

Master Plan for the renovation and addition to a mid-century synagogue in the Washington, DC suburbs. Scope included new entrance, expansion of lobby and sanctuary, and upgrade of finishes throughout the building. The project is currently moving forward with Design Development and Construction Documentation.

St. Sahag & St. Mesrob Armenian Apostolic Church Wynnewood, PA

Design and documentation of renovations and additions to this church's social hall and classroom building.

Xiente (Norris Square Community Alliance) Philadelphia, PA

Adaptive reuse of a parochial school as a vibrant neighborhood community and service center in an underserved section of North Philadelphia.

EDUCATION

Penn State University
State College, PA
Bachelor of Architecture, 2024
Minor in Architectural History

The Pantheon Institute
Study Abroad in Rome
Fall, 2023

DIS Scandinavia
Study Abroad in Copenhagen
Summer, 2024

HONORS and AWARDS

Dean's List, Penn State

Piranesi Prix de Rome
First Place 2023

Alma Heinz & August Louis Pohland
Scholarship, 2023

Third-Year Design Excellence Award,
2023

Corbelletti Design Competition
First Place, 2022

SOPHIE MARKS Staff Architect

Sophie has recently joined Brawer Hauptman + Larkin after moving to Philadelphia from central Pennsylvania. Much of her previous work focused on medical projects which makes her experience an asset to our healthcare team.

Sophie is skilled in numerous architectural software platforms and is active in professional and faith-based organizations.